School Supt.'s Report

To the Citizens of the Town of Rutland:

I have the pleasure of submitting my third annual report as Superintendent of Schools.

Ten schools were maintained during the Spring term, but it was not necessary to open the school in the Billings district in September, so there were nine schools in session during the fall and winter terms.

There were not many changes made in the corps of teachers. The resignation of Miss Rielly of the Center Rutland school caused two changes in that building. Miss Hanley of the primary room was promoted to the intermediate, and Miss Ryan of Center Rutland was chosen to fill the vacancy caused by Miss Hanley's promotion.

The truant officer received a number of calls to assist the teachers in keeping some of the children in school. This does not increase the interest in school work, for no child works well under those conditions. If the parent would co-operate with the teacher in regard to this, the evil would be remedied to a great extent.

The schools of the town are so scattered, it is difficult for the teachers to meet to compare their work, consequently we lack uniformity in our schools. Now, if the directors and teachers would decide upon some course of study, and then have each teacher follow it as far as practicable, we should have better results throughout the town.

ELEANOR T. MAUGHAN, Superintendent.

The amount to be provided for is practically the same as last year. State Taxes are some more. As the tax last year but little more than paid expenses we would recommend a tax of the same amount. General Tax 30c, Highway 20c, and School Tax as recommended by the School Directors.
